General
The outer card is made of ordinary parchment paper. The 1st inner card is made of parchment paper ice blue, the 2nd inner card is white linen card stock.

Tracing
White pencil: foldline. T white: double outlines, double contour lines, double frame outlines, dahlia’s outer frame line.

Painting with perga liners

Dorsing
With dorso light blue: behind painted dahlia within frame line.

Perforating (shallow)
With perforating tool angle: according to pattern.

Embossing
With perforating tool 1-needle: double contour lines, double frame outlines, between corner perforations. With embossing tool fine stylus: dahlia’s outer frame. With embossing tool large ball and small ball: flower petals. With embossing tool large ball: green leaves (very lightly). With embossing tool extra small ball: veins green leaves, squares in corner perforations. With embossing tool small ball: between double frame outlines (very lightly).

Stippling
With perforating tool 1-needle: between double frame outlines, dahlia’s outer frame.

Perforating (deep)
Fold the card. Affix the front and back sheets firmly to each other with removable tape. Perforate once more with perforating tool 1-needle: again according to pattern (through 2 layers).

Trimming
Cut out front and back sheets along the outermost corner perforations.

Finishing
Fold both inner cards. Thread the three cards together on the fold line with an embroidery thread. Affix the ultra fine glitter to the dotted dahlias with perga glue. Allow to dry thoroughly.
